

JOINT COMMITTEE ON TAXATION

PRESS RELEASE

JCT Press Release: PR02-15

For Immediate Release: May 4, 2015

For Further Information, Contact: JCT Main Office at (202) 225-3621

As Members of Congress continue to discuss and study the need to reform the Internal Revenue Code, the Joint Committee on Taxation is pleased to co-sponsor with the National History Center of the American Historical Association a Congressional briefing providing an historical perspective on tax reform in the United States. The briefing will examine the history of tax reform in the United States from the rise of the income tax through the post-World War II era.

Presenters

- Ajay K. Mehrotra, Associate Dean for Research, Professor of Law, and Louis F. Niezer Faculty Fellow at the Indiana University Maurer School of Law
- Bruce Bartlett, former deputy assistant secretary of the Treasury for economic policy
- Joseph J. Thorndike, director of the Tax History Project at Tax Analysts, a columnist for Tax Notes magazine, and a contributor for Forbes

Moderator

- Dane Kennedy, director of the National History Center

Friday, May 8, 10:00 to 11:00 a.m.

Rayburn House Office Building, Room 2103