INTRODUCTION

On May 18, 1995, Congressman Bill Archer, the Chairman of the Joint Committee on Taxation, and Senator Bob Packwood, the Vice Chairman of the Joint Committee on Taxation, announced the establishment of an advisory board of prominent economists familiar with modeling and other estimating issues to provide input to the Joint Committee on Taxation on ways to improve the estimating process and estimating methodology.

This document¹, prepared by the staff of the Joint Committee on Taxation, provides a list of the members of the Revenue Estimating Advisory Board, including their business addresses and telephone numbers.
