Joint Committee on Taxation Vice Chairman, Orrin Hatch, announces that in polling conducted November 18, 2015, Representative Kevin Brady of Texas was elected Chairman of the Joint Committee on Taxation for the remainder of the first session of the 114th Congress. Coincident polling provides that Representative Brady will serve as Vice Chairman of the Joint Committee on Taxation upon the commencement of the second session of the 114th Congress.

Chairman Brady fills the term vacated by Representative Paul Ryan who resigned upon his election as the Speaker of the House of Representatives. The polling was undertaken in accordance with Code sec. 8003 which provides “The Joint Committee shall elect a chairman and vice chairman from among its members.”
